Friday 18th November 2022

Dear Families,

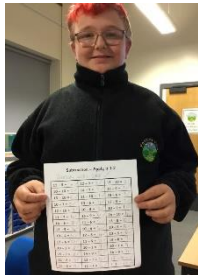

I hope you are all well and have had a good week!

This week we have been focussed on Anti-bullying and what this means in school and in wider society. Also, pupils have been preparing for our Pupil Parliament elections which we held today. Pupils were amazing delivering their speeches in front of our Governors and their peers!

My highlights from this week are:

Campaigning by Team Eagles!

Amazing Maths Team Kestrel!

Christmas Craft Enrichment Team!

SENIOR MENTAL HEALTH LEAD

I'm excited to announce, following intensive training, we now have a trained Senior Mental Health Lead in school. Over the course of this year, the Lead and I will be developing our school's approach to learning about Mental Health so that our pupils have greater knowledge of signs, symptoms and ways to take responsibility for their own health.

READING REVIEW

The school has had its Phonics and Reading curriculum reviewed by the Nexus Early Reading Lead. There are many different parts to a review: Leadership knowledge, pupils reading, lessons that are taught and interventions that support when a pupil finds it difficult. I am please to report that our Phonics and Reading provision helps our pupils to make good progress. Reading is an important life skill for our pupils and one that they need to practice, so if you haven't done as already, please download the All Aboard app so they can practice their reading at home.

Have a lovely weekend!

Yours sincerely,

S. Mulhall
